

MANAGEMENT EXPRESS FORUM & SEMINAR CLIMATE CHANGE AND GUERRILLA GARDENING

When Richard Reynolds began planting flowers secretly at night outside his tower block he had no idea he was part of a growing global movement committed to combating the forces of neglect, land shortage and apathy towards public spaces.

Richard Reynolds is a "Guerrilla Gardener" from the UK, passionate about the environment he "fights the filth with forks and flowers". He is author of the book Richard Reynolds on Guerrilla Gardening: A Handbook for Gardening Without Boundaries.

As an organisation British Council is committed to the issue of Climate Change. Richard Reynolds will be in Botswana participating in a series of events for the British Council's Green Week. Attend one of the events below for an opportunity to interact with Richard Reynolds and learn how you or your organisation can contribute to efforts to reduce the effects of climate change.

Climate Change and Guerrilla Gardening

Event Management Express Forum

Date: 28th January 2009

Time: Doors open 6:30pm for 7pm – 9pm

Venue: Maharaja Conference Centre, Gaborone

Members free. Non members P100.00

Light snacks will be served. Cash Bar

Climate Change: What We Need to Do

Event: Management Express Seminar

Date: 29th January 2009

Time: 9am – 5pm

Venue: Maharaja Conference Centre

P1000.00 per person

Fee includes refreshments, lunch and certificate of attendance

Contact

British Council,
British High Commission Building
Queens Road, The Mall
P. O. Box 439
Gaborone

Tel. 3953602 Fax. 3956643

Email. general.enquiries@britishcouncil.org.bw