32–33

Family

Family Film Club

Come along to the Barbican every Saturday morning and join our host Vanessa Lawrence for our regular helping of films, activities and workshops.

Our special theme for June is Radical Nature.

From 10.30am, join us for Movie Cart creative activities with Vanessa, based on the week's film. Then on Sat 27 we have a Saturday Special Make Your Own Flower Pot workshop starting at 10am with our special workshop leader.

Activities and workshops are free to same day Family Film Club ticket holders.

See page 17 for details of our films.

Members tickets £3.50 in advance, £4 on the day. Non-Members tickets £5.50

Membership is free! Join online, over the phone or at FFC on Saturday mornings.

No unaccompanied adults and everyone needs a ticket.

Gallery

Family

Pick up a family activity sheet with your tickets for top tips and things to look out for as you explore Radical Nature – Art & Architecture for a Changing Planet.

Adult talks and Workshops

All talks are free to same day ticket holders and take place in Barbican Art Gallery unless otherwise stated.

Lates

Every Thu until 10pm

The Harrisons in Conversation

Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison

are among the leading pioneers of the eco-art movement. The collaborative team have worked for over thirty years with biologists, ecologists and urban planners to initiate collaborative dialogues which uncover ideas and solutions to support biodiversity and community development.

Thu 25 Jun 7pm Redgrave Room

Guerrilla Gardening

Neglected space, horticultural potential, fighting filth with forks and flowers. Tactics, strategies, instruction - want to find out more? Join south London based guerrilla gardener Richard Reynolds, as he explores this colourful world of illegal yet universally admired gardening.
